

Telemarketers are justified in calling public entities, businesses, and commercial establishments but are not justified in calling private residences that have signed up on a do not call list. What part of this do you not understand. These same people will make sure you are not on the elect me list for the next election. Stop the give aways to business or we will make sure you are given away. And that is a promise.